

Year 5 Autumn Term 2 Answer Sheet

5

Underline the relative clause in this sentence:

Adam, who had terrible hay fever, couldn't stop sneezing.

a

Tick all the sentences that contain a subordinating conjunction:

Musa hates cabbage nor does he like sprouts.

Georgina took a deep breath before she dove into the pool. ✓

Because he slipped on the ice, Jeremy needed his ankle bandaged. ✓

d

Can you write the past tense of these words?

wear

wore

say

said

b

Write one word into each section of this table:

Accept any adjective, pronoun and proper noun in the correct sections of the table.

e

Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up a determiner. Can you help him unjumble it?

l

a

l

all

c

Tick the sentence that uses the word 'balance' as a noun.

During the gymnastics lesson, Heidi held a fantastic balance before completing a forward roll. ✓

Lenny tried hard to balance the egg on the spoon.

f

Year 5 Autumn Term 2 Answer Sheet

5

Add commas around the relative clause in this sentence:

Adam^⓪ who had terrible hay fever^⓪ couldn't stop sneezing.

a

Write the subordinating conjunction that fits best into each sentence:

Georgina took a deep breath before/after she dived into the pool.
Because/As/Since he slipped on the ice, Jeremy needed his ankle bandaged.

d

Can you write the past tense of these words?

strike

struck

repay

repaid

b

Write two words into each section of this table:

Accept any two adjectives, pronouns and proper nouns in the correct sections of the table.

e

Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up two determiners. Can you help him to unjumble them?

l

a

l

n

a

y

all

any

c

'Balance' can be used as a verb and a noun. Write a sentence where 'balance' is used as a noun.

Accept any sentence with 'balance' used as a noun, e.g. During the gymnastics lesson, Heidi held a fantastic balance before completing a forward roll.

f

Year 5 Autumn Term 2 Answer Sheet

5

Add a relative clause and the appropriate punctuation to this sentence:

Accept any appropriate sentence with a relative clause that adds extra detail, e.g. Adam, who had terrible hay fever, couldn't stop sneezing.

a

Write the subordinating conjunction that fits best into each sentence:

Georgina took a deep breath before/after she dived into the pool.

Because/As/Since he slipped on the ice, Jeremy needed his ankle bandaged.

Now use 'after' in a sentence as a conjunction.

Accept any sentence where 'after' is used as a subordinating conjunction used at the beginning of a subordinate clause, e.g. After greedily eating her lunch, Samantha rushed out into the playground.

d

Can you write the past tense of these words?

wind

wound

teach

taught

b

Write three words into each section of this table:

Accept any three adjectives, pronouns and proper nouns in the correct sections of the table.

e

Mr Whoops has accidentally jumbled up three determiners. Can you help him to unjumble them?

l

a

l

n

y

u

g

all

any

enough

a

h

o

e

n

c

'Balance' can be used as a verb and a noun. Write two sentences: one where 'balance' is used as a verb and one where 'balance' is used as a noun.

Accept two sentences where 'balance' is used as a verb and a noun, e.g. Noun: During the gymnastics lesson, Heidi held a fantastic balance before completing a forward roll. Verb: Lenny tried hard to balance the egg on the spoon.

f