6. Read a non-fiction text about a favourite topic.
   Explain why you think the author has made this suggestion.
   Pupils' own responses, such as: I think the author has suggested this because if someone is interested in a particular topic, then they will probably enjoy reading about this topic in a text. For example, if someone enjoys cycling then they may enjoy a book about bicycles.

7. How do you think that money is raised during World Book Day?
   Pupils' own responses, such as: On World Book Day, I think that money is raised when people give a donation to take part in different activities. Some people may also receive sponsorship money for activities (like 'Readathons').

8. Explain why you think that the author chose the sub-heading Books for Everyone.
Pupils' own responses, such as: I think the author chose this sub-heading because the charity, Book Aid International, helps to give books to people who may not otherwise be able to have a book. This means that everyone can have a book of their own.

9. Summarise what you have learnt about World Book Day using 30 words or fewer.
Pupils' own responses, such as: World Book Day is an event that happens each year and started in 1995. On World Book Day, people take part in different activities which encourage reading for pleasure.
