

Starter:

7 is greater than 10.

Is this true? Convince me.

Wednesday 6th October 2021

Reception LO: to match sets of objects to numerals.

Must: Recognise numerals 0-10.

Should: Accurately count objects first then match to numeral.

Could: Count further than 10.

Year 1 L.O: To order numbers by value.

Must: Identify numbers on a number line.

Should: Use mathematical language to compare numbers.

Could: Explain their reasoning.

Complete the sentences.

5

3

7

The greatest number is 7.

The smallest number is 3.

8

6

2

The greatest number is 8.

The smallest number is 2.

9

10

4

The greatest number is 10.

The smallest number is 4.

Complete the sentences.

The greatest number is 8.

The smallest number is 4.

For example: 8 is greater than 4.

4 is smaller than 8.

Complete the sentences.

9

2

7

For example: 9 is greater than 2.

2 is smaller than 9.

9 > 7 > 2.

2 < 7 < 9.

Order the numbers from smallest to greatest.

9	5	1
---	---	---

1	5	9
---	---	---

3	1	2
---	---	---

1	2	3
---	---	---

7	5	8
---	---	---

5	7	8
---	---	---

Your Task: Complete your worksheet

1.

5

7

3

The greatest number is _____.

The smallest number is _____.

_____ is greater than _____.

_____ is smaller than _____.

greatest smallest

Can you use crocodile symbols to compare 3 groups?

NEXT STEP

Complete the blank dominoes.

Have the numbers been ordered smallest to greatest?

No, they have been ordered greatest to smallest.

How do you know?

The numbers are decreasing.

? ? ?
THOUGHTS?
? ? ?