

Frequently Asked Questions

Does my child need to complete all of the activities?

Parents can choose the activities they think will work best for their child or children, or they can allow pupils to choose which activities they complete and when. It is anticipated that most children will complete most activities during the two weeks.

Should I mark my child's work?

You don't need to give formal marking, but it is always helpful to chat and give feedback! You could ask them:

"What went well?"

"How could you make it even better?"

"What would you do differently next time?"

Where can I find online resources about my child's Science topic?

BBC Bitesize is a fantastic resource to help with your child's learning of plants

What if I don't have a laptop or device available for my child?

PE: YouTube is available on some smart TVs. However, if they can't watch and complete the BBC Supermovers can they just simply create their own moves?

Art: Can you discuss what sculpture is with your child? Then ask them to discuss what they think about it and see if they can create their own using resources around the house.

Topic: If you cannot access the Espresso link for our Ancient Egyptian topic use the information given for W.C. 04.05.20 and discuss this with your child. There is a Power Point and 10 interesting facts.
