

Frequently Asked Questions

Does my child need to complete all of the activities?

Parents can choose the activities they think will work best for their child or children, or they can allow pupils to choose which activities they complete and when. It is anticipated that most children will complete most activities during the two weeks.

Should I mark my child's work?

You don't need to give formal marking, but it is always helpful to chat and give feedback! You could ask them:

"What went well?"

"How could you make it even better?"

"What would you do differently next time?"

What if my child has already done this Espresso activity?

Some children may have logged in to try different activities already! If this happens, they can browse Espresso and find a different activity to try instead.

Where can I find online resources about the Easter story?

The News Round video and information tells us about Easter eggs <https://www.bbc.co.uk/newsround/17597617>

What if I don't have a laptop or device available for my child?

Topic: Can you look at a map you have at home? Talk about the symbols sometimes used on maps.

PE: YouTube is available on some smart TVs. However, if they can't watch Joe Wicks, can they make up their own workout? Perhaps they can teach it to mum, dad, or a sibling!

Science: Can you talk to your child about a fossil being the remains or impressions of a living thing (link to dinosaurs) and have these discussions before your child has a go at drawing one.
